

Bromleians FC: Expectations and Values

Represent

You are representing Bromleians Football Club and whilst a member at the club you are expected to behave in a manner which will not bring into disrepute yourselves, team mates or the Club.

Improve

All club members shall endeavour to create a culture of continuous improvement. From top to bottom; the board shall actively push the club forwards; coaches and managers shall drive players to realise their potential; and players shall actively seek to improve and develop their game.

Do not leave this to someone else, take responsibility. If we stand still others will pass us by.

Your positive and determined Attitude, aligned with your complete and thorough Application will help improve the Ability of yourself, your team mates, and your club

Respect

Respect your team mates, fellow club members, officials and opposition. The club will not accept disrespectful behaviour by anyone representing the club in any capacity. Anyone found in breach of this will be subject to disciplinary proceedings.

Treat the club, dressing room and training areas as you would your own home, i.e. no damage to the property, all litter collected, kit and equipment stored correctly. This applies at both our own club and that of our opposition.

Always be punctual and correctly attired whether it be training, match day or any other occasion at which you are representing your club

Support those that attend to the administrative side of your club through the prompt payment of subs and fines

Train to win

Training lays the foundations of success, anyone invited to attend to training is expected to perform at the utmost of their ability at all times

Aim High

Do not limit your horizons or dwell on success. As a team set personal and individual goals that push each other beyond your current achievements.

Legacy

It is your responsibility to enhance the reputation of the club for those that follow; through your performances on the field and behaviour off it. Create a legacy for the next generation of Bromleians to emulate and surpass.

Equality

Old Bromleians has a zero tolerance policy on any form of discrimination. Any club member reported to be in breach of this will be suspended from club duties pending a committee review

Respect the laws of the game.
